WOULD HAVE THEM STRENGTHENED

Rather Than Weakened, Say the Farmers of Franklin of Temperance Laws.

Want Parcels Post, Pure Seed Law and County Experiment Station.

We, your committee on resolutions, beg to report as follows:
Resolved, first—That for the protection of the farmer and the advancement of agriculture, we favor a pure seed law.

Second—That we favor amending the fertilizer and feed laws so as to make them effective.
Third—That we believe that agricultural should be placed on the course of study in the public schools.

Fourth—That we stand for the strengthening rather than the weakening of the temperance laws now in force.

Fifth—That, in view of the fact that the express companies enjoy a practical monopoly in transporting parcels, and that the present postal regulations are an injustice to the farmer, we favor a law granting a general parcels post.
Sixth—That we favor the establishment of a county experiment station, and we believe that it should be located as near the center of the county as possible.

Seventh—That we extend our heartfelt thanks to the business men of the village for their contributions for the corn show.
Eighth—That we render our thanks to the officers and State speakers of our institute for their excellent work in making this institute a success; also we appreciate the good music rendered during both the day and night sessions.

D. S. MONROE,
Chairman.
Committee on Resolutions.

Stories of Success

W. L. DOUGLAS

Graduating from the university of cobbling at 15, the world's greatest shoe-maker began his struggle for success at 23 cents a day in a cotton mill. Right at the outset he recognized the value of an education and set about to get it with a determination that would not be denied.

From school he went back to the shop, and from the shop back to the school, carrying a book with him from lodging to factory and getting all there was in each book he read. The spirit of saving quickly takes hold of one in earnest, it gives you a respect for yourself and a feeling of pride attainable in no other way. You can start a savings account here for a dollar and you may add to it as you can.

Our Savings Department pays 4 per cent. Interest on Deposits twice each year.
